

Anthony Shriver Talks Best Buddies Art of Friendship Event

Anthony Shriver stopped by Good Day LA Thursday to talk about an important event being held on Melrose featuring world-renowned photographers!

Anthony Shriver talks Best Buddies Art of Friendship event

LOS ANGELES (FOX 11) - Anthony Shriver stopped by Good Day LA Thursday to talk about a Best Buddies event being held on Melrose featuring some world-renowned photographers.

Shriver is the founder of Best Buddies International, a nonprofit dedicated to establishing a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities people with intellectual and developmental disabilities

The event Thursday in Los Angeles is called "The Art of Friendship" and will include photographs by Bruce Weber, Arthur Elgot, Martin Schoeller, Nick Brandt, Greg Gorman, Herb Ritts, Brian Bowen Smith and Melvin Sokolsky among others.

The work was donated to the Best Buddies Collection and will be auctioned off to raise funds for Best Buddies.