Why is employment important?
NATIONAL CORE INDICATORS states that: 84%* OF ADULTS (18+) WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES (DD) DO NOT HAVE A PAID JOB IN THE COMMUNITY. WE MUST WORK TO ENGAGE THIS GROUP.

OF THE 16% OF PEOPLE WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY (DD) WHO HAVE A PAID JOB IN THE COMMUNITY:

- 33% HAVE AN INDIVIDUALLY SUPPORTED JOB*
  Receiving publicly funded services or support.

- 34% HAVE A COMPEITIVE JOB*
  Not receiving publicly funded services or support.

- 34% HAVE A GROUP SUPPORTED JOB*
  Receiving support, works in a job mainly done by a group of people with disabilities.

The average hourly wage range for Group Supported Employment is below the National Minimum Wage of $7.25/hour.
