

Advocating for Employment Speech Writing Worksheet

Ambassadors can write a speech about their current job, a past job and its impact on their life, or their career goals. Remember to encourage ambassadors to focus on advocacy in the workplace: why is it important to employ people with disabilities? What are the positive impacts of an inclusive work environment for all employees?

What will you be writing about today (job experience or career goal):

---

---

---

Why is this topic important to you?

---

---

---

What do you want people to know about your professional skills? Why should we listen to your speech about employment?

---

---

---

Intro: explain your topic and why we should listen

---

---

---

Body: why is it important that you are employed? Share your experiences in the work place or advocate for employment. Include reasons that people with disabilities should be employed?

---

---

---

Conclusion: why is creating an inclusive workplace important?

---

---

---

Remember to include a call to action (homework for your audience):

---

---

---