

Best Buddies Living

Resident without IDD Application Process

The decision to enroll in an independent residence with individuals with and without intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) is a significant and exciting one. The Best Buddies Living process reflects this. Residency decisions are made based on the “goodness of fit” between the applicant and the housing program. To establish this, we have adapted the following requirements and process:

1. Please complete the application, including contact references and a letter of recommendation, and submit it to Best Buddies Living with a non-refundable application fee of $50.
 - a. Application fee can be in the form of a check written out to “Best Buddies International” or you may venmo Best Buddies International, @bestbuddies
Best Buddies Living
Attn: Julia Moluf
320 Florida Ave. NE #717
Washington, D.C., 20002
2. When the completed application is received and reviewed, an interview and tour will be scheduled at the Best Buddies Living Home. This will allow the applicant to view the residential property, learn more about the program, and meet face-to-face with BB Living staff. At the same time, BBL staff will have the opportunity to determine the applicant’s response to the program and its offerings.
3. If deemed a good fit by both the applicant and BBL, we will notify the applicant and initiate the move-in process.
4. Please submit a head shot/photo attached to your application

Requirements

- A guarantor agreement is required as part of the lease.
- Resident must be 18 or over at the time of move-in.
- Resident must maintain full-time student status, employment, or consistent volunteer work for at least 3 days of the week.
- Resident must be open-minded and respectful to all individuals regardless of race, creed, ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression, physical characteristics, ability/disability, or veteran status.
- All residents will be required to participate in 3 group meals a week, attend one group activity a week and support a fellow resident when needed. Examples can include: assisting with laundry, cooking or in an emergency situation.
- The current residence in Washington, D.C. has room for ten residents total which is open to males and females. Residents within each apartment will identify as the same gender.

Best Buddies Living operates its housing in compliance with federal and state housing law.

Please email the completed application and related documents to juliamoluf@bestbuddies.org.
