Message From Our Chairman

Dear Best Buddies family,

There is no denying the challenges we have faced over the past year and a half — however, in many ways, Best Buddies is coming out of the pandemic stronger than we were before it started. Across the nation and globally, our programs hosted hundreds of virtual chapter events and Ambassador trainings, allowing participants to remain engaged and connected with the mission. Our Jobs program transitioned to the digital space to ensure participants thrived in their work-from-home positions and remained job-ready.

We ended the year more certain than ever of the essential and life-changing role that Best Buddies programs play in connecting people and developing a more inclusive world for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD).

Best Buddies’ resilient staff and leadership team, my fellow board members, and our dedicated partners in the public and private sectors have shown incredible fortitude and commitment throughout the challenges stemming from the pandemic.

With your support, Best Buddies reached thousands of participants with IDD and provided them with the resources needed to feel included, confident and optimistic about the road ahead.

I am incredibly proud of what we have accomplished together over the past year. Our Best Buddies staff, volunteers, and supporters quickly adapted to unprecedented change while at the same time continuing to support and engage with Best Buddies participants here in the U.S. and internationally.

As we reflect on the global impact of Best Buddies’ mission and the millions of lives touched, please know that I am deeply grateful to each of you who have supported this organization and made our mission possible. Thank you for making this world a better place for individuals with IDD.

Looking ahead, we will need each of you to help lead our mission forward because there is still much more work to be done. Together, we will meet the moment and continue to change lives through the power of inclusion.

In Friendship,

Anthony K. Shriver,
Founder, Chairman & CEO, Best Buddies International
Why We Matter

Throughout nearly six decades, people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) have gained access to opportunities that have improved their lives. Despite this, society is far from being inclusive in every aspect. The number of people within the IDD community who still face access barriers, social isolation, and discrimination is staggering. Many people with IDD are unemployed and do not experience the simple joys of genuine friendships that people without disabilities often take for granted.

This is where Best Buddies International plays a vital role. Best Buddies is the world’s largest organization dedicated to ending the social, physical and economic isolation of the 200 million people with IDD. For individuals within this community, Best Buddies serves as a lifeline to creating life-long friendships, securing successful jobs, living independently, and gaining self-confidence.

Currently, an estimated 81%* of adults (18+) with IDD do not have a paid job in the community. The Best Buddies Jobs program strives to place participants with IDD in supported employment with the potential to receive benefits and earn a total income upwards of $900,000 over 30 years. In turn, these individuals will contribute $153,000 in taxes back into the economy, rather than receiving nearly $895,000 in Federal SSI and Medicaid benefits during that time period.

This is just one of the countless examples of how Best Buddies works to improve the quality of life for individuals with IDD.

Through the creation of meaningful one-to-one friendships with peers without disabilities, the pursuit of integrated employment and inclusive living opportunities, and the development of leadership skills for individuals with IDD, Best Buddies is changing lives and building a more inclusive world for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. “Best Buddies is the world’s largest organization dedicated to ending the social, physical and economic isolation of the 200 million people with IDD.”

A Parent’s Perspective

“When I first learned that my son Riley had a disability, I had a realization that has given me endless joy as a father. I knew that no matter how difficult Riley’s journey would become, he would never have to go through it alone. He and I are in it together as a union.

Riley has been involved with Best Buddies for more than 20 years and participates in the Best Buddies Jobs program in California.

- Brian Grazer, Riley’s dad, Oscar-winning producer and philanthropist

Riley wakes up happy every day. He is the glue, soul, and heartbeat of our family. All I want is for him to really hear me when I say how important he is to me and to the family itself.

I didn’t understand Best Buddies at first, but once I realized it’s about making sure every kid like Riley gets some incoming phone calls from a pal, and that leads to friendships that lead to things like going to a movie theater, grabbing a coffee and other social outings – my outlook completely shifted. All those things have given Riley, and anyone like Riley, confidence, love and a sense of appreciation.

You should join Best Buddies if you want to be part of a community of people who don’t judge you but comfort you, giving you a sense of confidence and tools to go forward in your life.”

“ You should join Best Buddies if you want to be part of a community of people who don’t judge you but comfort you, giving you a sense of confidence and tools to go forward in your life.”
Best Buddies International is the world’s largest organization dedicated to ending the social, physical and economic isolation of the 200 million people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD). Our programs empower the special abilities of people with IDD by helping them form meaningful friendships with their peers, secure successful jobs, live independently, improve public speaking, self-advocacy and communication skills, and feel valued by society.

Mission

Best Buddies International is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to establishing a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-to-one friendships, integrated employment, leadership development and inclusive living for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD).

Vision

To put Best Buddies out of business, Best Buddies envisions a world where people with IDD are so successfully integrated into schools, workplaces and communities that its current efforts and services will be unnecessary. Until that vision becomes a reality, the organization will continue to educate middle school, high school and college students, community members, corporations and employers about the emotional, functional, and natural needs and abilities of people with IDD.

Who We Serve

The IDD community that Best Buddies serves includes, but is not limited to, people with Down syndrome, autism, fragile X syndrome, Williams syndrome, cerebral palsy, traumatic brain injury and other undiagnosed disabilities.

Programs

Best Buddies programs sit on the four key mission pillars below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>One-To-One Friendships</th>
<th>Integrated Employment</th>
<th>Leadership Development</th>
<th>Inclusive Living</th>
</tr>
</thead>

One-To-One Friendships

Builds friendships between people with and without IDD, offering social mentoring while improving the quality of life and level of inclusion for a population that is often isolated and excluded.

BESTBUDDIES, Middle Schools, High Schools, Colleges and Citizens

Creates an inclusive community for students and adults with IDD, helping them become socially integrated with their peers at every age.

Integrated Employment

Secures jobs for people with IDD, allowing them to earn an income, pay taxes, and continuously and independently support themselves.

BESTBUDDIES, Jobs

Matches skilled, qualified individuals with IDD with businesses seeking enthusiastic and dedicated employees. Through the Jobs program, Best Buddies develops partnerships with employers, assists with the hiring process and provides ongoing support to the employee and employer.

An estimated 81% of adults (18+) with developmental disabilities do not have a paid job in the community. The Best Buddies Jobs program strives to place participants with IDD in supported employment, with the potential to receive benefits and earn a total income upwards of $900K over 30 years. In turn, these individuals will contribute $153K in taxes back into the economy, rather than receive nearly $895K in Federal SSI and Medicaid benefits during that time period.

Leadership Development

Educates and empowers people with and without IDD to become leaders, public speakers and advocates.

BESTBUDDIES, Ambassadors

Offers people with IDD the opportunity to gain the public speaking skills, self-esteem and confidence needed to successfully advocate for themselves, their peers and Best Buddies in communities, workplaces and government.

BESTBUDDIES, Promoters

Empowers youth to become advocates for people with IDD and help open new Best Buddies chapters and programs by organizing special events that promote awareness to the disability rights movement.

Inclusive Living

Provides an integrated experience in which people with and without IDD are active, contributing citizens – living independently in a dynamic environment where they can learn, grow, and thrive.

BESTBUDDIES, Living

Provides individuals with and without IDD an opportunity to live together in a vibrant, educational community that supports all residents in advancing their employment, financial literacy, continued education, and life skills as they work to achieve their personal goals.
Best Buddies hired its first Director, Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion to develop and lead the organization’s diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) strategies for recruiting and retaining a diverse workforce, leverage the benefits of diverse cultural groups, create a more inclusive work environment, and engage Best Buddies chapters globally.

Best Buddies revamps its e-Buddies program to provide opportunities for volunteers with and without IDD to develop one-to-one friendships online and create connections using the e-Buddies online platform, which is designed to expand friendships and create shared experiences through virtual social events.

Best Buddies opens an office in Dominica in November 2021 to serve a new community of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities on a global scale.

Without love, support and friends, life may feel isolating – this is a reality people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) have faced throughout history. Best Buddies offers people with IDD the chance to have a friend, gain self-confidence and self-esteem and share interests, experiences and activities that many other individuals enjoy.

BEST BUDDIES

Middle Schools, High Schools and Colleges

Best Buddies offers students with IDD the opportunity to have a friend and enjoy common interests, experiences, and social activities in the Middle School, High School, and College programs. Each friendship pair commits to speaking and spending time together every week throughout the year. These programs create lasting friendships and help facilitate an environment of inclusion throughout the school and in the community.

BEST BUDDIES

Citizens

For people with IDD, the absence of meaningful friendships extends into adulthood. Best Buddies Citizens pairs adults with IDD in one-to-one friendships with adults without IDD in corporate and civic communities. Citizen buddy pairs commit to a one-year friendship in which they will talk once a week and see each other twice a month. These relationships commonly grow into friendships that last a lifetime.

e-BUDDIES

This program creates social inclusion and friendships for people with and without intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in a virtual space. Technology is an integral part of society and by participating in e-Buddies, participants can develop the skills needed to communicate across a variety of platforms.

In 2021, e-buddies served 3,236 total participants. These participants exchanged more than 50,000 emails. e-Buddies was also used as a teaching tool in the classroom by more than 100 special education teachers and other professionals across the country.
Ian Kahalewai, 22, first heard about Best Buddies in 2018 during his senior year of high school. When he graduated, his mom reached out to the staff of Best Buddies in Hawaii to see how Ian could join the Friendship program. Ian attended a meet-and-greet party at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa campus and became a member. Since then, he has developed the confidence to be himself, and credits his best friend and buddy, Rohan Sridharan. The two have been matched since 2018 and although the pandemic has kept them from seeing each other, they still text and FaceTime often.

“When I was young, I told my parents I would never make any friends. Then, along came Rohan. We’ve been buddies ever since! His friendship has impacted me so much. He’s been there for me and supports me and all the people and things I love. Having a friend like Rohan has changed my life. He likes a lot of the same things that I like, such as playing basketball. I have learned how to cook, gotten better at math and I am appreciative of Rohan for introducing me to his sister, brother, and his college friends.” – Ian

“It’s hard to remember that Ian and I met through Best Buddies because it feels like we have always been friends. “When I joined Best Buddies and matched with Ian, I knew we would be great friends because we’re close in age, kind of look alike (everyone keeps asking if we’re brothers), and like the same kinds of things.” – Rohan

Ian and Rohan’s connection is rooted in shared interests and grows stronger every year. They love cooking together, going to sporting events, and celebrating Ian’s favorite holiday – Halloween!

“We transcend the mission of Best Buddies,” says Rohan. “I think of Ian as my third sibling. He has gotten to know my friends and family and now he works with my sister at the Department of Health to practice social skills and learn how to navigate within the community. I am thankful for Sandy and Danny (Ian’s parents) because they are so supportive of our friendship and welcomed me into their home. I don’t have a lot of family here, so having Ian really has helped me, too. Although I am a senior this year, Ian and I will always remain friends and I plan to stay in Hawai‘i and create more memories with him.”

When I was young, I told my parents I would never make any friends. Then, along came Rohan. We’ve been buddies ever since! His friendship has impacted me so much. He’s been there for me and supports me and all the people and things I love.”

Best Buddies Jobs assists participants in finding meaningful employment, earning a competitive income, receiving benefits, and working alongside others in the community. The program offers people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) the opportunity to become financially independent, removing the need for government assistance or parental support. A focus on competitive, professional opportunities is what sets the Best Buddies Jobs program apart from other employment services.

Best Buddies Jobs furthers the integration of people with IDD into the community through supported employment. The focus is on facilitating competitive, integrated job placements that allow participants to earn an income, pay taxes and work in an environment alongside their peers in the community, leading to full inclusion and independence. Coaching is provided in essential job interviewing skills, and once employment is secured, there is assistance with on-the-job training.

The Jobs program prides itself on developing employment opportunities in professional environments and focuses on white-collar jobs such as receptionist, mail room assistant, file clerk, office assistant, front desk assistant, and retail associate. Employers range from some of the top law firms and talent agencies to well-known retail businesses and luxury hotels.

The states with an active Best Buddies Jobs program as of December 31, 2021, include Arizona, California, Capital Region, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Tennessee, Texas, and Wisconsin.

Before becoming involved with Best Buddies, Zach was not very socially active and did not participate in many extracurricular activities. After joining his high school Best Buddies chapter during freshman year, that all changed. Zach made tons of friends, went to parties, and even was named the Best Buddies Buddy Director at his school. This confidence led Zach to have the chance to catch a touchdown pass from Tom Brady at the Best Buddies Challenge: Hyannis Port event in Boston, which he says was one of the best moments of his life. From there, Zach went on to join his college Best Buddies chapter and live and work in New York City. Zach is currently part of the Jobs program and is also matched in a one-to-one friendship in the Citizens program.

One of the biggest challenges Zach faced in 2021 was trying to find a job. After graduating college in May 2020, he did not have much luck getting responses or invitations to interview. That’s when the Best Buddies Jobs program offered assistance. The New York City Jobs team supported Zach in finding employment as a GSIS Statistician at the National Football League (NFL) headquarters, which has been a perfect fit and huge growth opportunity.

“My life has positively improved in so many aspects since securing my job at the NFL,” says Zach. “Not only have I developed amazing social relationships with my co-workers, but I’m now living on my own for the first time in my life. I’m responsible for paying my own rent, cleaning, buying groceries, and figuring out transportation around the city. Not only has the job brought me the tasks that employment provides, it has also made it so that I have more responsibilities to succeed now that I’m living on my own in the largest city in the U.S.”

In this role, Zach is responsible for the support, audit, and process of all NFL and NCAA game statistics for the 2021 season. The skills he has learned have been predominantly technical, but what he loves the most is getting to watch football on Sundays with his co-workers.

When describing his experience, Zach says, “Being in an NFL-related job is one thing, but when you add amazing people to work with in that environment, it doesn’t get better than that. Best Buddies has helped me improve my social communication skills, establish close friendships, attend many fun events, and find a job I love. I am very thankful for the opportunities and support Best Buddies has given me since joining.”

Best Buddies educates and empowers people with and without intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) to become leaders, public speakers and change agents. Through the Ambassadors and Promoters programs, participants inspire their communities to build a more inclusive world for people with IDD.

BEST BUDDIES® Ambassadors

Best Buddies Ambassadors is a program that provides training for participants with and without IDD in speech writing, public speaking, and self-advocacy. Ambassadors develop the skills to share their life stories, promote Best Buddies programs, network, and, most importantly, advocate.

Ambassadors participate in trainings focused on the art of public speaking and advocacy. Once trained, they share their stories and become more involved and empowered as citizens. Ambassadors are encouraged to speak about opportunities for people with IDD, present at recruitment fairs and Best Buddies events, and develop partnerships in the community.

BEST BUDDIES® Promoters

Best Buddies Promoters empowers youth to become advocates for people with IDD by organizing and attending special events that promote inclusion. Students attending a school without a special education program can join a Promoters chapter to develop connections with people with IDD or can start one by contacting their local Best Buddies state office.

Each Promoters chapter is led by a chapter president from the student body and a faculty advisor and is assigned a Best Buddies staff person who offers regular support and guidance. Once formed, Promoters chapters host events, activities, and fundraisers where they advocate for people with IDD, and promote the Best Buddies mission.
Hello! My name is Allie and I want to share with you a bit about myself and why Best Buddies means so much to me. My middle and high school years were hard. I remember being in high school and never getting a phone call to hang out. That made me so sad. I didn’t have many friends in middle school and in high school; I just wasn’t included in activities. I was at a different lunch than most of my friends, so I often sat alone. Think back to your middle and high school years and think about not having friends by your side. It was not fun, to say the least.

Instead of sitting back and just accepting this as the way my life would be, I started getting involved in activities geared towards individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD). I am involved with Special Olympics, and I work 25 hours a week at an early childhood center. Finding and keeping friends is often hard for people with IDD and Best Buddies helps us do that so well. Best Buddies has changed my life and allowed me to stay connected and engaged with my friends during the pandemic. Throughout this time, we had dance parties, practiced yoga, and had lots of fun chats via Zoom.

I love that Best Buddies helps connect people with and without IDD who have similar interests. I am part of the Best Buddies Citizens adult friendship program and the day I was matched with my buddy Nicole was a day filled with excitement. My buddy and I are a perfect match. We are both disability advocates, we’re also both great public speakers, and we love to have lots of fun together. So far, we have gone to the farmer’s market, to some coffee shops, and eaten outside at restaurants during the pandemic.

I am excited to see so many people celebrating true friendship through Best Buddies. It is important to be a friend and to have a friend. That’s what Best Buddies does so well.”

Inclusive Living

Supporting and empowering individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) to live as integrated, contributing members in the larger community is the next frontier in the movement to create a more inclusive society. Best Buddies Living fosters a dynamic environment where people with IDD can learn, grow and thrive.

BEST BUDDIES® Living
The Best Buddies Living program encourages people with and without IDD to live together in a vibrant community that focuses on supporting residents in accomplishing their life goals and dreams.

The Best Buddies Living program supports inclusion by:
• Developing programs that foster an opportunity for residents to experience living with friends and colleagues. Programs include weekly shared meals, fitness classes, cultural events, holiday parties, social activities, and sports.

• Offering an environment that encourages the development of independent living skills, life-changing relationships, and educational pursuits in connection with a college or university. Through an affiliation with a nearby school, all residents can immerse themselves in campus life, attending sporting events and enjoying fitness and dining facilities alongside their student peers.

• Matching people with and without IDD in a residential experience, and providing a supportive environment that encourages full-time or part-time employment.

As of December 31, 2021, Best Buddies operated two Living residences in Washington, D.C., and one in Miami, FL.
People with intellectual and developmental disabilities deserve to be included, and we deserve the opportunity to experience an inclusive living environment like Best Buddies Living.”

Best Buddies’ International Programs (IP) began 2021 focusing on sustainability, with goals that included finding new funding sources, helping return to in-person events safely, continuing to pivot to virtual events when needed, and strategic planning for participating countries. Some programs were naturally unable to survive the pandemic and were forced to close in 2021. Therefore, IP shifted its efforts from expansion to strengthening the existing international presence.

Despite the challenges of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, Best Buddies’ International Programs (IP) reached its strategic goals in 2021. IP aided in bringing in more funding to Macau, Greece, Serbia, Chile, and the Philippines. Virtual trainings were hosted to reach more Best Buddies global staff members and guide them on programs and strategic planning for their respective programs.

For 2022, Best Buddies’ International Programs department is excited and optimistic. Goals include hosting virtual regional staff events, launching a new IP website, developing a public service announcement, facilitating marketing alignment among countries, and expanding to new countries for the Friendship and Jobs programs. The department also looks forward to providing chapter grants to programs in Latin America, fortifying strategic partnerships such as the US Embassy and multinationals, improving the International Programs accreditation process, and hosting department-specific events such as Best Buddies Leadership Conference in July 2022 and the Global Staff Forum in November 2022. Lastly, the department looks forward to finalizing a strategic plan for the regions where we operate.

The Best Buddies Friendship Walks are fundamental in supporting local Best Buddies programs dedicated to ending the social, physical and economic isolation of the 200 million people worldwide with IDD.

In 2021, over 30,000 participants in more than 60 cities walked to move Best Buddies’ mission forward. Collectively over $5 million was raised as participants, sponsors, volunteers and public figures joined the movement that celebrates friendship, inclusion and unity. Over the years, Best Buddies Friendship Walks have made a profound impact in communities nationwide, providing a platform for participants to showcase the Best Buddies mission. Each walk provides an atmosphere for new friendships, promising opportunities and most of all, inclusion for all people.

Best Buddies Leadership Conference

Summer 2021

The 2021 Best Buddies Leadership Conference (BBLC) was a three-day digital event uniting Best Buddies leaders, volunteers, and community advocates from around the globe to imagine, create, lead and empower the future of the inclusion movement. Over the past 32 years, BBLC has inspired thousands of leaders to be Best Buddies advocates and to bring about social change in their communities.

Traditionally held as an in-person conference, the 2021 Best Buddies Leadership Conference transitioned to an online experience that allowed thousands of participants and advocates from around the world to unite virtually, creating connections and building community as they prepared for the year ahead.

Best Buddies Month

March is Best Buddies Month! What began as a one-day celebration of the Best Buddies mission evolved into a month-long festivity to reflect on the importance of inclusion and acceptance for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The month kicked off with the annual Spread the Word: Inclusion campaign, that encouraged participants to showcase how they promote inclusion in their communities. In March 2021, participants hosted virtual chapter parties, awareness activities and engagement campaigns, to honor their unity in advancing opportunities for friendship, employment, leadership development, and inclusive living.

EKS Day

Created in 2010, Eunice Kennedy Shriver (EKS) Day serves as a unique opportunity to celebrate her legacy, indomitable spirit and life-long commitment to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD). Even during a time when society did not, Eunice Kennedy Shriver believed in the abilities of people with IDD and led the effort to end the physical and social isolation they endured.

EKS Day promotes a global call for individuals to commit to actions of change, inclusion, and acceptance for people with IDD. Across the United States and in 100 countries, EKS Day is celebrated with love, justice, faith, hope and courage – her five key values. Activities included sports clinics, picnics, leadership trainings and disability rights awareness efforts.

With 2020 being a year of such change and uncertainty in the world, we entered 2021 with hope and resilience. With the pandemic still posing a challenge, Best Buddies in Arizona (BBAZ) continued to thrive and succeed in delivering incredible programs and services and fun and engaging events.

We held our 10th Annual Best Buddies Friendship Walk in April by having a car parade in the Tempe Diablo Stadium parking lot with over 70 cars and more than 450 participants. We completely surpassed our goal of $104,000, raising over $117,000!

Our life-changing annual Best Buddies Leadership Conference, usually held in Indiana, stayed virtual for the second year. That didn’t stop us from having 73 student leaders, Ambassadors, Jobs program participants, Advisory Board members, and community leaders from Arizona join thousands of attendees from across the globe to learn leadership skills, build confidence, and make lifelong friends.

In 2021, the Jobs program, newly launched at BBAZ in 2020, placed 12 individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in competitive and integrated employment with 12 companies that see the value in people whose potential is limitless. Our Pre-Employment Transition Services Program, also launched in 2020, helped future Jobs participants with IDD get ready for the working world and provided training for 105 young adults.

By November, we were able to hold our 18th Annual Spirit of Friendship and Best Buddies Champion of the Year Gala entirely in person. Nine incredible Champion candidates raised funds and awareness to support the growth of the Best Buddies mission. Their dedication, along with many generous donors and sponsors, allowed us to raise over $538,000 — making it the top fundraising Best Buddies Champion of the Year Gala in the nation and in the history of Best Buddies International!

We continued to expand beyond geographical boundaries using virtual web platforms, such as Zoom and Microsoft Teams. We provided virtual and in-person group activities for students to socialize and stay connected to their peers. We expanded into two new schools and ended the year with Best Buddies Friendship chapters in 63 schools across the state. Our Citizens program also continued to bring together adults with and without IDD in 23 one-to-one friendship pairs.

On behalf of the Best Buddies Advisory Board, Jr. Advisory Board, and staff, I thank you for your support and ask you to join us in 2022 as we continue to work toward a world of inclusion for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

One-To-One Friendships

Walking into her new high school at Corona Del Sol in 2004, Whitney was nervous as she left her group of middle school friends to go on her high school journey. Whitney was hesitant about joining the Best Buddies Friendship Program at her school until a teacher saw that she felt rejected and encouraged her to join. She thought, why not give it a go! When she joined, she never knew how much Best Buddies would positively impact her life.

Dana is passionate about giving back to the community and has always found ways to get involved with other local non-profits. “I had been involved with other non-profits, but many didn’t allow me to truly feel a part of the mission. That all came together when I was introduced to Best Buddies.” Dana and Whitney’s friendship could not have come at a better time when everyone seemed to be excluded from the rest of the world due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Dana remembers her biggest 2021 challenge was determining how to meet Whitney safely and comfortably. She said, “I wanted the friendship to feel true and genuine without putting anyone at risk, especially as comfort levels changed in waves.” Whitney felt the same way but said she still had so much fun interacting with Dana even when it was virtual and found out they have so much more in common than they thought. Together they attend the Coyote’s game, go out to lunch and attend monthly Best Buddies Citizens events! They both said they have been able to open themselves up to one another and plan on keeping their friendship for a lifetime.

It’s incredible what a friendship can do to make you want to do more! Dana not only is a part of the Citizens Program, but she feels like she is a part of a global movement where everyone is included. She took her chance in being a Champion candidate, helped plan the annual Best Buddies Friendship Walk and Gala, and now serves on the Best Buddies in Arizona Advisory Board. As for Whitney, she too decided to give back to the community; she volunteers at an animal shelter and works with special education middle school students. Now that is something to be proud of!

Greg was one of the first Jobs participants for the newly formed Best Buddies Jobs program in Arizona. Greg shared with Best Buddies in Arizona (BBAZ) staff, “My life was pretty much going nowhere before I joined Best Buddies. Since joining the Jobs program, I’m beginning to feel a sense of usefulness.”

His dream job was to be a game show host as he enjoys interacting and sharing his trivia knowledge with others through his own game show called “The Color Game.” Understanding that many steps need to be taken before landing his dream job, Greg expressed interest in working at MOD Pizza. Greg was given a chance to interview and got hired! Greg has big dreams while he works at MOD Pizza. He is ready for his 15 minutes of fame and would like to take his dream job of being on television to MOD, and he hopes to be on a MOD Pizza commercial or used in their photos nationwide.

Greg boards Paratransit, a shared ride, door-to-door transportation service for people with disabilities, three days a week, gets himself to MOD. Some of his job duties include folding boxes, conducting lobby checks, taking out the trash, and washing dishes. Greg is becoming quite popular with the staff and customers.

Greg’s supervisor, Liam, shared his thoughts on having Greg on the MOD Team. “When Greg first started, he was shy, comparatively to how he is now. He was able to get through one stack of boxes each shift, and now he does four times that. We either run out of boxes for him to fold, or we run out of space in the back because Greg is so efficient with the boxes. He sets up our location for the whole week by wrapping our cakes. He is confident in himself, has a wonderful attitude, and is always in a good mood. He really elevates us all, and we just love having him here.”

Greg is happy to be socializing, sharing his trivia knowledge, and earning some money – but most importantly, having a reason to get up in the morning and contribute to a cause.

“ He is confident in himself, has a wonderful attitude, and is always in a good mood. He really elevates us all, and we just love having him here.” - Liam
I first got involved with Best Buddies in middle school and joined the Friendship program. However, my high school did not have a Best Buddies program, so there was a long period when I was not involved. I did not have close friendships and felt like I wasn’t a part of a community during that time.

In 2019, my friend Anna reintroduced me to Best Buddies, and I joined the Citizens Program in Arizona. I was matched up with my buddy, Kara, at the end of 2020. Even though this was in the middle of the pandemic, our friendship grew. I also began to feel part of a community once I got involved with the Ambassadors program, which allows me to connect with more of my peers. Since my re-involvement with Best Buddies was at the same time as the pandemic, there were some challenges as there was not much opportunity for in-person activities and events. Most events were virtual, which was a bit of a challenge as I also have a visual impairment. One of the ways that I overcame the challenge of not having in-person connections was to use my Instagram account to connect with and educate others about Best Buddies. My mission is to help spread inclusion and encourage other people with disabilities to own and be proud of who they are. So far, I have made 20 videos and collaborated with businesses, such as OSHO Brewery and Bad Bouch, to help spread the mission of Best Buddies and my own mission of inclusion.

Since joining Best Buddies, I have moved into my own place, became a youth leader at my church, grew in self-advocacy through my social media, and had opportunities to speak publicly about Best Buddies.

My hope for the future is that the Best Buddies Friendship program will be in all schools so that more people with and without intellectual and developmental disabilities can be involved, and schools will become more inclusive. If I could tell the world three things, it would be: be kind, be smart and be active.

“My mission is to help spread inclusion and encourage other people with disabilities to own and be proud of who they are.” - Parker
